

Cork Genealogical Society Family History Conference 2018

Silverspring's Clayton Hotel, Conference Centre Cork.

Cost €25 conference and Includes light lunch.

Details at www.corkgenealogicalsociety.com

Saturday 24th. March 2018.

Registration from 9.00am

"Bridging the Past & Future"

speakers:

John Grenham. M A G I.

"Where are we? And how did we get here? An overview of online research resources"

An overview of what's online and how it's changed over the past year or so.

Margaret Jordan. Genetic Genealogist.

"Tracing Your Irish Roots and Finding Family using DNA"

Nicola Morris M.A.G.I.

"The CSORP"

the Chief Secretary's Office Registered Papers held in the National Archives of Ireland".contain all correspondence sent to the Chief Secretary's Office, including outrage reports, police files, intelligence reports, prisoner escapees, nominations for roles in the civil services.The collection can often contain lists of suspected members of proscribed organisations, files relating to a murder etc.and much more.

Jill Williams.

School records.

What is available.

www.corkgenealogicalsociety.com

www.facebook.com/groups/corkgenealogicalsociety/

<https://www.familytreedna.com/groups/ireland-heritage>

